I thought it was a bit more clear in the non-technical version I sent to Paul, but my language could be wrong☺ I want to see what the group comes up with next week and make sure language is clearer and that we don't make this too academic. Off line, I asked Mike to beg the team to REDUCE the length. It's not a concise document to start with and only seemed to grow after this latest revision by Paul. More words don't equal more clarity. He agreed.
